Additional information about copyright law may be obtained from several sources. For a detailed legal account, consult Perle and Williams on Publishing Law or Nimmer on Copyright (although these resources are expensive and may be best consulted via a library that has these in its holdings). Other useful texts include The Chicago Manual of Style chapter “Rights and Permissions” and Law of the Web: A Field Guide to Internet Publishing. Specific information, useful guides, and forms may be obtained free of charge from the US Copyright Office,,,,,;US Copyright OfficeLibrary of Congress101 Independence Ave SEWashington, DC 20559-6000Telephone: (202) 707-3000www.copyright.govAdditional useful information
